

Two-Year Colleges Indicating Interest in Participating in the Advanced Technical Credit Program

The following colleges have indicated an interest in participating in the Advanced Technical Credit Program.

Contact individual colleges to verify their participation.

For a more detailed list that includes each college, address, telephone number, and website address go to http://www.atctexas.org/t2_2007_college_list.htm.

Alamo Community College	Navarro College
Alvin Community College	North Central Texas College
Angelina College	Northeast Texas Community College
Blinn College	Odessa College
Brazosport College	Panola College
Central Texas College	Paris Junior College
Cisco Junior College	Ranger College
College of the Mainland	San Jacinto College District
El Paso Community College	South Plains College
Frank Phillips College	South Texas College
Galveston College	Southwest Texas Junior College
Grayson County College	Temple College
Hill College	Texarkana College
Houston Community College System	Texas Southmost College
Howard College	Texas State Technical College
Kilgore College	Trinity Valley Community College
Lamar Institute of Technology	Tyler Junior College
Lamar State College	Vernon Regional Junior College
Laredo Community College	Weatherford College
Lee College	Western Texas College
Lone Star College System	Wharton County Junior College
McLennan Community College

If your local two-year college is not on the above list, contact the college Dean of Technical or Workforce Education for information about their college's participation in the Advanced Technical Credit Program.

Not all colleges offer all courses or programs.